■ Teaming up for kids

Since 1989, Tustin Lexus and former big-league baseball player Doug DeCinces have gone to bat for abused and abandoned kids in Southern California. This year more than 180 people took part in the Doug DeCinces Orangewood Classic. The reception, auctions, dinner and golf tournament netted $135,000 for the Orangewood Children's Foundation, a suburban Los Angeles helper of youngsters in foster care. David Wilson, left, owner of the 16-dealership Wilson Automotive Group that includes Tustin Lexus in Tustin, Calif., and DeCinces are members of the Orangewood board of directors.
